

Contents

---

Articles

- 6 Editorial
Christine Fenech
- 7–33 Exploring the Relationship Between School Autonomy and School Responsiveness as Perceived by Heads of Primary Schools in Malta
David Polidano
- 34–55 What Potential Does an Individual Professional Development Plan (IPDP) Have in Addressing the Learning Needs of Educators in Malta?
Fiona Vassallo Medici
- 56–78 An Investigation Into the Development of a Professional Learning Community in a Maltese Primary Church School
Stephanie Zammit Dimech
- 79–104 Researching Pupils' Perspectives:
What are the Quality Indicators of a Good School?
Angele Pulis
- 105–128 The Role of Secondary School Educational Leaders in Identifying and Responding to Child Sexual Abuse
Neal Sammut
- 129–153 The Role of the Senior Leadership Team in Promoting Class Teachers' Wellbeing in Primary Schools
Deborah Ann Montebello
- 154–187 The Perceived Value of Church, Independent, and State Schools' Employer Brands Among School Teachers in Malta
Maria Sghendo and Emanuel Said

---

Educational Leaders' Stress: An In-Depth Analysis of the Maltese Context Elaine Tabone Betts	188–207
Investing in Social Capital to Embrace Formative Assessment Gertrude Tabone	208–230
Cross-Curricular Teaching Within the Learning Outcomes Framework: The Experiences of Primary Teachers in Two State Schools in Malta Charlene Xerri Hili and Heathcliff Schembri	231–258
Maltese Teachers' Perception of the Use of Digital Resources in the 21st Century Classroom Tracey Ann Vella Cumbo	259–277