From: Joanne Grima – CEO

Subject: First Annual Symposium 2020: Internationalisation and Multiculturalism in Maltese Education and Society

Registration Link: <http://tiny.cc/v4x3jz>

Deadline: 12/06/2020

The Institute for Education is organising the 1st Annual Symposium which will be held on 26th June 2020 at the Institute for Education in Pembroke. The focus will be on “Internationalisation and multiculturalism in Maltese education and society”.

The Symposium is an opportunity for Master and Doctoral graduates, Doctoral candidates and researchers to present their recent work on the theme and create synergies between educators and policy makers. Maltese and foreign researchers will present their recent research findings that can contribute to the further development of the Maltese education sector. Educators are encouraged to attend and become aware of the research being held in this area and the recommendations proposed and consequently be in a position to adapt and adopt any that might be useful in the context they operate.

The themes to be explored during the 1st Annual Symposium are:

- Internationalisation and multiculturalism in Maltese society;
- Internationalisation and multiculturalism in schools;
- Working in international and multicultural schools;
- Living in an international and multicultural society;
- Effective international and multicultural practices in schools and society.

All the information about the conference can be found at: <http://tiny.cc/x3r4jz>. The draft programme can be accessed from <http://tiny.cc/c1r4jz>. Those interested in attending are kindly asked to register online by following the link: <http://tiny.cc/v4x3jz>. Registration opens on the 18th February 2020 and is free of charge.

Thank you.
